Our goal for 1980 was to seek new dimensions in producing our annual. We primarily worked on effects in color, graphics and layout. Many people contributed to the annual during the year adding their creative and unique touches. We would like to thank Mike, Joe, and Danny of Chula Vista Photo for their superior work and for meeting our deadlines. We would like to thank Rod Williams, our consultant, for his support and advice. Special thanks are given to all the faculty and students for their cooperation.

LADIES NIGHT '79

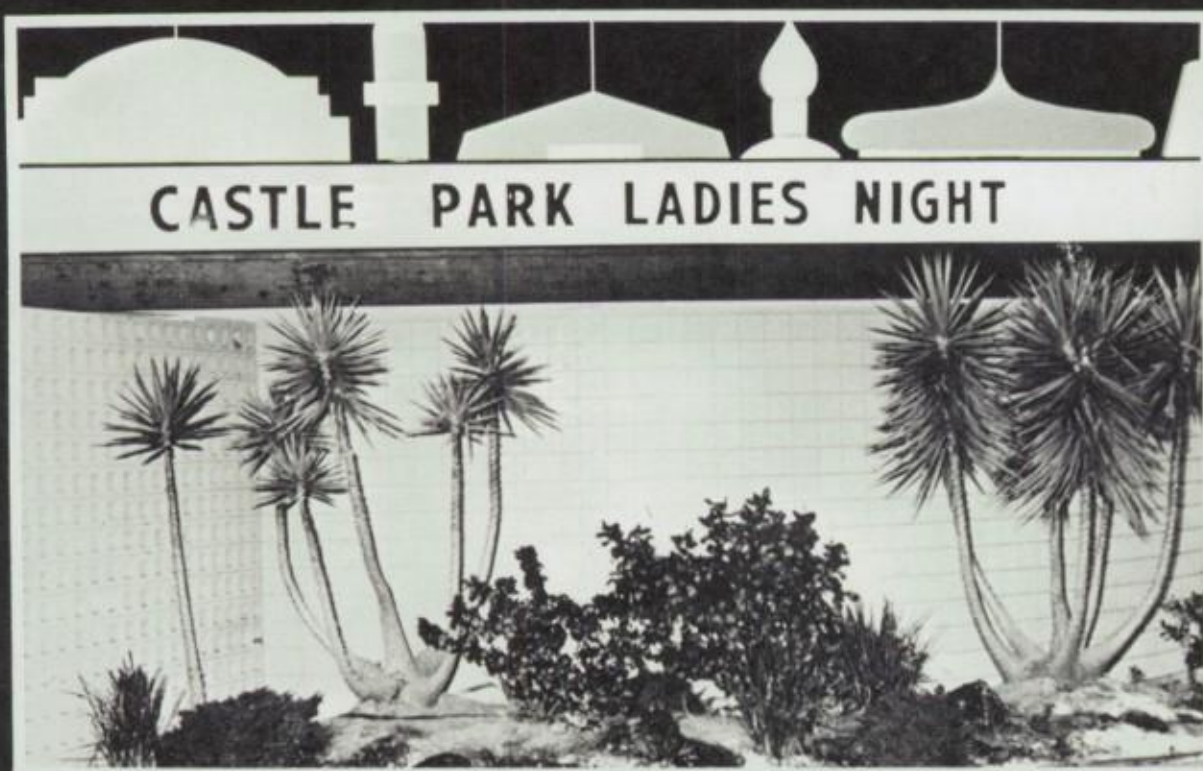

Princess Ana & Gilbert

Princess Lorena & Tommy

Queen Cindy & Mike

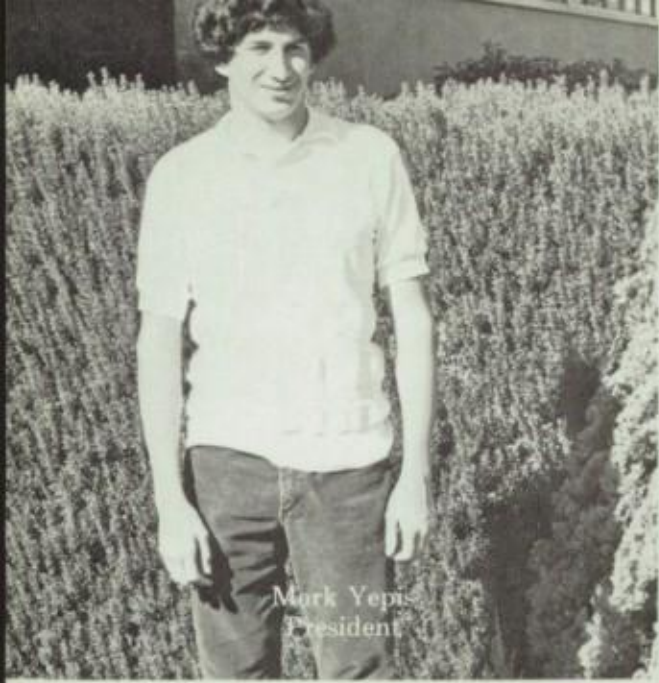

The Eighth Wonder rocked the Al Bahr Temple in Clairemont Mesa for the Castle Park Ladies' Night on December 7. Beautiful Castle Park ladies and their gentlemen danced amid Christmas decorations awaiting the announcement of the queen and her princesses. Mr. Gary Withem who sponsored the event said that the girls really enjoyed the event and the band was a good all-around group. Photographs were taken by Mr. Mike Swift.

ASST. COACH BOB KORZEP

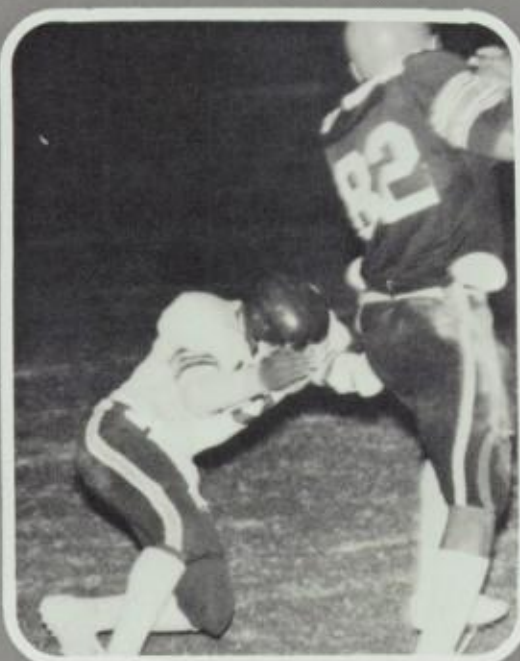

When the Islanders arrived at Troy for the season opener the Trojans were looking for revenge over last years upset. C.P. led off the night with a 90 yard scoring drive that put the Trojans on top, 6-0. Penalties, totaling up to 160 yards, against C.P., stifled all efforts the Trojans made to take control of the game. The Islanders tied up the game in the first quarter and the score was left a 6-6, tie.

The Trojans entered the second game of the season a heavy favorite over Southwest. Yet again the Trojans destroyed their own attack by committing 170 yards in penalties. But the grim determination of Walter Holmes may have made the difference for Troy. Holmes rushed for 208 yards and scored the Trojans only TD. Marco Morale's kick for the extra point proved game deciding, as the Trojans repelled the Raiders, 7-6.

It was a sad night for the Trojans leaving Southwestern Apache Bowl. For the first time in 14 years a C.P. Varsity football team had lost to Bonita Vista. The 14-0 upset marked another big disappointment for the Trojans hopes of a season conquest.

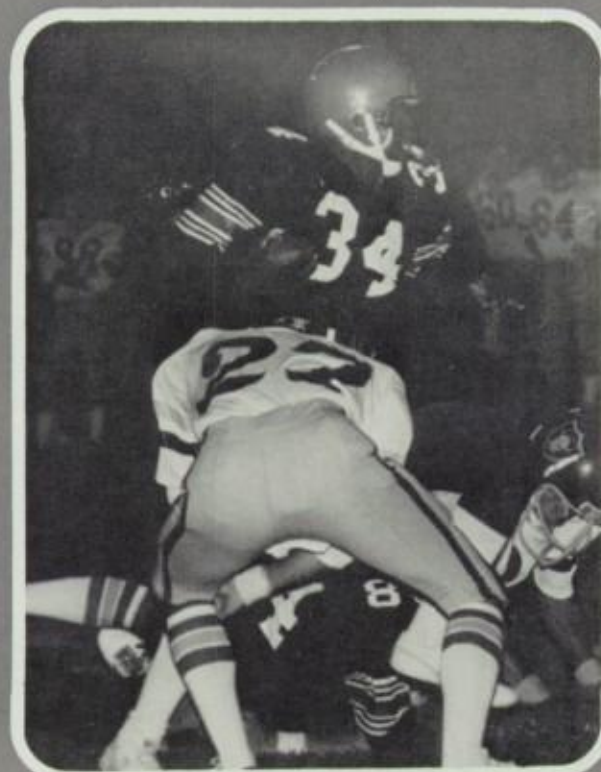

SEASON OF MISFORTUNE

The Trojans finally came to life when the Mariners came inland. Jack Jackson, who had been barred from play up until this game, made his debut with a 33 yard scamper for a TD on C.P.'s first offensive play from scrimmage. Jackson scored twice more, one on a 54 blast. Also Manuel Bravo in his first start as quarterback scored via the airways to Robert "the Gnat" Guerra. Walter Holmes and Mark McKinney both ran in a touchdown apiece. The Mariners could only shrink back from the 48-12 barrage that was laid upon them.

With their offense now rived C.P.'s next opponent, the Montgomery Aztecs, looked ripe for the taking. A heavy drizzle turned the game into a comedy of errors. The Trojans scored first on a 17 yard run by Walter Holmes. But at the half they led by a mere point. The game ultimately came down to one play in the fourth quarter. The Aztec killer was attempting a field goal from the 27 yard line. The ball was booted but it hooked just wide of the goalpost. The Trojan bench began to empty onto the field, but were stunned short of doing so when a referee signaled the kick good. So, in a game all too reminiscent of a playoff game two years ago against Vista High, the Trojans succumbed, 9-7.

When the Trojans landed at Hilltop they knew it was an all or nothing game. The undefeated Lancers stood between them and a playoff spot. The Lancers scored first on a CIF record breaking 53 yard field goal. The Trojans giftwrapped 14 more points for the Lancers by fumbling twice inside of the 20 yard line. Valiently, down 17-0 in the final minutes of the game, the Trojans drove down the field and put 8 points on the board. But, it was not enough, as the Trojans were denied victory, 17-8.

Homecoming 1979 was a festive occasion for most. But the Trojans, with playoff hopes extinguished, were looking for someone to unleash their frustrations on. This turned out to be most unfortunate for our guests, the Spartans. Chula Vista led off with a quick 7 point slap in the face on the opening kick off return. In response, the "Trojan horse", Walter Holmes tore through the Spartan defense on an 81 yard touchdown burst. The Trojans then proceeded to score almost at will. But the real story of the night was the fantastic play of Matt Hicks and Paul Ramirez, both defensive backs. Hicks intercepted two passes, running one back for a touchdown. Ramirez, not to be outdone, also intercepted a pass running it back, 50 yards to the goal line. The Trojans, not satisfied with a mere win, would not stop short of a 34-13 massacre.

The last game of an all too short season for CP found the Trojans at Marian High School in a game that was being played solely for pride's sake. For the Trojans it was a chance to go out on a winning note. For the Crusaders it was their homecoming game. Marian capitalized on turnovers made by the Trojans on their first two possessions. Then, with a 14 point deficit hanging over their heads, the Trojans settled down and took control. Jack Jackson just plain burnt the Crusaders on a 76 yard run for the Trojans first 8 points. Walter Holmes galloped for a 70 yard TD and when Alden Alagata found Nelson Wells in the end zone the game was as good as over. The finishing touch came as Walter Holmes scored for his fourth TD of the night on a five yard blast with no time left on the clock. Through the years the Castle Park-Sweetwater rivalry has produced of the most spectacular high school football games imaginable. And, after the utter demise of Chula Vista, the Trojans were anxious to do battle with the Red Devils. Playing on the neutral ground of Southwestern College, the Trojans fell into their season long pattern of falling behind in the early going, 12-0. And, it was evident by the second quarter the Trojans would be playing a catch up game. And then the proverbial tragedy struck. Five interceptions made the Trojans attempt at a comeback almost comical. The Trojan offense's only redeeming feature of the night came on a 76 yard touchdown drive early in the third quarter. And when the final gun did sound the Trojans found themselves at the short end of a 18-6 score. But, probably more importantly, the game was a disappointment in a tradition.

TROJAN FEVER

With a nucleus of four letterman from last years varsity squad blended with a group of six players up from a fine Junior Varsity team — the Trojan basketball program is once again ON THE MOVE . . . With depth at the guard position and an over-all lack of team height, the Trojans once again will try to control the tempo of the game. With a controlled fast break occasional pressing and good fundamental position defense, the Trojans will do whatever is necessary to make the other team play our game.

CATCH IT!!!

Young and inexperienced were the adjectives used to describe the 1979-80 junior varsity basketball team. The squad consisted of two eleventh graders and fourteen tenth graders, with limited playing time. What the squad lacked in experience they made up for in hard work, hustle, determination, and the desire to improve.

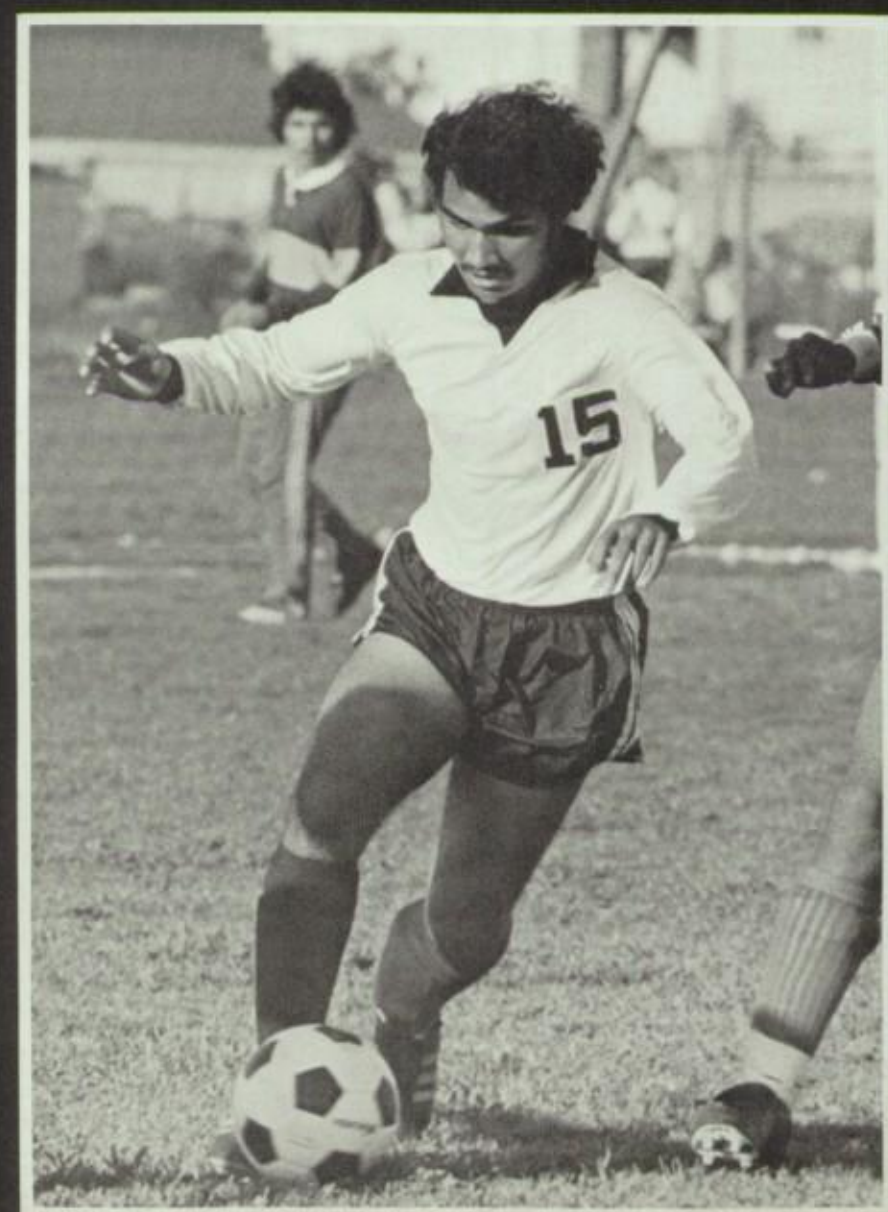

As the season progressed the players gained valuable experience, confidence and skills. Perhaps the one ingredient that this team gained was a respect for their teammates and the ability to work as a team.

Salute to Mom

Thank you mom for all you've done;
my senior year was a lot of fun.

But that's not all you've done for me;
you picked me up when I "skinned my knee."

You gave me room so I could grow;
how much that means you'll never know.

Twelve years of school you've helped me through;
I've learned a lot from teachers and you.

Now I'm grown and will have to begin a new kind of life in this big world we're in.

Thanks again mom for all that you've done;
you've made all my years happy ones.

Reaching For Our . . .

IN PLACE OF RAINBOWS

Each of us, as students, entered Castle Park as sophomores with a horde of other students.

Always before we had been treated as a herd. We were herded through school on a course we had no influence over.

We were like a beam of a light, uniform and confined, flowing in a direction controlled by others.

Troy was different for us. The babysitting was over.

It was time for each of us to set our own goals, to plot our own course.

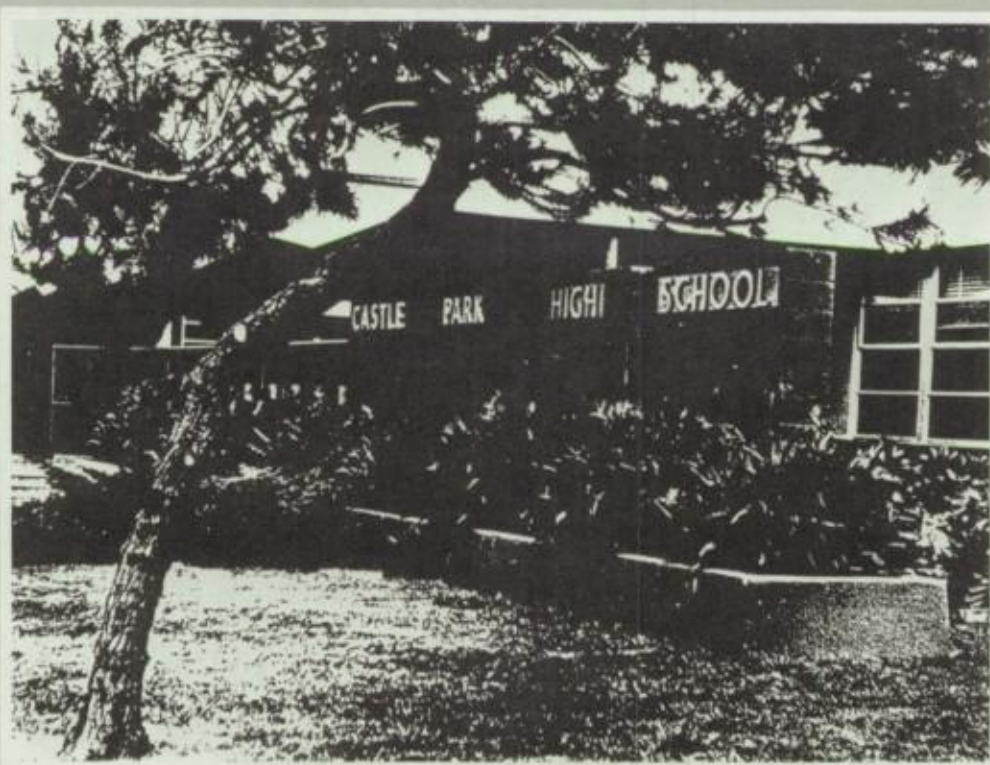

When light passes through a prism, each ray takes on a new direction. The light loses its uniformity and takes on the brilliance of a rainbow.

Castle Park is our prism, giving us color. It is our stepping off point for whatever direction we choose to take in life. It is what brought out the color of our personality in all of us.

Denny,
well you're probably surprised that I'm writing in this annual, after what happened tonite. But that doesn't matter as far as this is concerned. I thought maybe I wouldn't get the chance later on. These past light months have been terrific. We've gone through a lot of things together, but we've always kept trudging on. I think maybe we've gone through more things than most other couples
I know! I'm not quite sure what's going to happen tomorrow or the next day, but whatever happens you'll always have a place within me. I hope this annual brings back many good memories to you.
Because I know I'll always remember them.
I also know that the future holds a lot of good things for you. I know that because you're intelligent and super cute! I hope you stay as sweet as you are. Don't let the world turn you into a cold person. Or a freak like my brother! (ha! Ha! (He's not so bad) It's probably been tough on you, (you know what I mean) But it's also been tough on me! (ditching) But I've loved every minute of it! So if and when we break up don't forget me! Don't forget my phone # either! So when you look at this annual five years from now and you're still a swingin' single call me! Good luck on that test!
